COURSE DESCRIPTION: An examination of the tax laws and system for U.S. Individual Income Taxes

COURSE OBJECTIVES: THE STUDENT WILL BE ABLE TO:
1. Identify and understand the fundamental aspects of federal and state tax laws and statutes governing Individual Income Taxes.
2. Develop analysis skills necessary to apply legal rules learned to specific factual tax situations.
3. Develop skills necessary to prepare individual income tax returns
3. Begin the review and learning of substantive law that may be required to take the CPA Examination.

TESTS AND GRADING: There will be four (4) non-cumulative Exams given over the handouts, text materials, lectures, and class discussions. All Exams will be made up of True-False, Multiple Choice, Matching, and possible short answer questions. All exams are Scan-tron graded. Each Exam will be worth 100 points. Total available points: 400.

There will also be ten (10) Quizzes or assignments given over the material to be covered in class. Each quiz/assignment will be worth Ten (10) points and your lowest two scores will be dropped. No make-ups allowed. Total available points: 80.

There will be a tax return problem to be completed on or before December 1, 2015 and will be worth 100 points.

GRADING WILL BE DETERMINED AS follows:
A--90% or more of the available points; B--80% TO 89% of the available points
C--70% TO 79% of the available points; D--60% TO 69% of the available points
F--59% and fewer of the available points
MISSING EXAMS: Necessary absences from exams must be pre-arranged with the instructor, unless a true personal emergency occurs. Rescheduling of exams will only be allowed for acceptable excused absences when absolutely necessary. Anyone missing an exam for a valid reason will be required to take one common comprehensive make-up exam. The comprehensive make up exam will be administered the last week of class and it will cover all topics discussed during the semester. Acceptable excused absences include, but at the instructor’s discretion, are not limited to: illness of student serious enough to require a doctor’s visit, serious illness or death of an immediate family member, required attendance of the student at university sponsored event, and job interviews. All excused absences must be substantiated by written documentation.

MISSING QUIZZES: There are no makeup quizzes or assignments.

CLASS WITHDRAWAL DEADLINES: (go online for the SIU-C Fall, 2015 Schedule of Classes)

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY: The University's policies regarding cheating and plagiarism by students will be strictly followed by the Instructor. Students who are caught cheating will have their quiz or exam taken from them and they will receive a grade of "F" on that quiz or exam and they risk receiving a grade of "F" in the class. Students who knowingly allow another student to sign in for them or who are caught signing the attendance sheet for another student will also receive a grade of “F”.
